The details, the Evening Standard says, it has been unable to verify.

LONDON, Nov. 27.—The Daily Mail publishes this morning the following alarmist dispatch from Cape Colony:

"The anti-British feeling in Cape Colony is assuming dangerous proportions, owing to false stories spread of British barbarity in Orange River Colony and the Transvaal."

Referring editorially to its Cape Colony news, the Daily Mail adopts a most serious tone, asserting that the anti-British movement is accentuated by the withdrawal of troops from Cape Colony and calling for vigorous action by the British government.

GENERAL IS UNDETERMINED

Doesn't Know Whether to Agree to United States Suggestions Concerning China or Not.

BERLIN, Nov. 27.—Admiral D. White, the United States ambassador, today reiterated to the correspondent of the Associated Press that his recent interview with Baron von Richtenhoffen, the secretary of foreign affairs, was a mere discussion of the Chinese question.

A representative of the Foreign office informed the correspondent that he could not go into any details about the matter.

"We must not interfere in the matter. It is the United States government's business to give out information on the subject, especially since the diplomatic negotiations at Pekin are about finished."

The correspondent, from various sources, gathers the following facts:

Germany, the working schooner to Secretary Hay's note, wishes to ascertain from its diplomatic representatives at the capitals of the powers how the other powers have received the United States suggestions.

Replies from the representatives are expected within forty-eight hours.

"Unfavorable reports are in circulation concerning alleged American intrigues."

KRUGER APPEALS IN VAIN

With Two Exceptions Powers Refuse to Join in Petition for Arbitration.

BITTER DENUNCIATION OF ENGLAND

Leader of Boers Says That as Surely as There is a God in Heaven Great Britain Will Be Punished.

LONDON, Nov. 27.—The Vienna correspondent of the Daily Chronicle says he hears that President Kruger has petitioned the powers for arbitration under The Hague convention; that two powers acceded to his request but that all others rejected the petition.

The Paris correspondent of the Daily Mail wires that he had a conversation with Mr. Kruger yesterday and that the Boer statesman grew excited and vehement when the reporter hinted that England would ignore all attempts to secure arbitration and would fight any combination of powers rather than give up the republics.

"Mr. Kruger insisted," says the correspondent, "that Mr. Chamberlain had signed The Hague convention and could not withdraw. He said that England had earned a just punishment, and that 'as there is a God she should and would be punished.'"

PARIS, Nov. 27.—Mr. Kruger began a busy day this morning by making an official call. Before 9 o'clock he departed for Central Bradford, with the intention of having it published:

"I hold a very small portion of the capital of the Birmingham trust. I do not know and never have known anything about its investments, which, of course, are constantly changing."

KILLED BY UNKNOWN PERSON

Coroner's Jury Completes Its Inquiry Into the Death of W. H. Fullhart.

BROKEN BOW, Neb., Nov. 27.—(Special Telegram.)—The verdict of the coroner's jury in the inquest on W. H. Fullhart's body at Anselmo yesterday, was to the effect that the deceased came to his death by being struck on the head with some iron object, the name of which was not known.

As the snow Friday night had covered most of the tracks made in the former snow, except the sled tracks, it made it difficult to determine positively the number, but the conclusion was that the two men's tracks crossed at the place where Fullhart was killed.
